Saludos Prospective HACE Junior Board Participant,

On behalf of the Hispanic Alliance for Career Enhancement (HACE), we thank you for your interest in serving on the HACE Junior Board. The purpose of this Board is to engage high achieving and high potential Latino professionals in supporting the mission of HACE while providing them with opportunities to network, build leadership skills, and develop professionally. The benefits you will receive from joining this Board are the following:

- Support HACE's mission in providing insight, access, and professional development to Latino professionals throughout their career continuum
- Expand your professional network by meeting and working with other civic and professional minded Latinos
- Build your leadership acumen by serving and leading on the HACE Junior Board and HACE Board sub-committees, while achieving specific deliverables critical to enhancing HACE's mission

Those interested in participating must meet the following requirements.

- Professionals between the ages 23-35. Anyone can nominate themselves or another by filling out a nomination form and providing a resume
- 2 year commitment renewable annually
- Attend at least 4 HACE Junior Board meetings per year
- Serve on at least one HACE Board sub-committee
- Actively participate in Sembrando el Futuro annual fundraiser
- Give or get of $1,000 per year through any combination of the following:
 - Individual ticket sales to Sembrando el Futuro fundraiser
 - Securing Individual donations to HACE
 - Facilitating corporate financial support for HACE networking events, leadership development programs, or corporate membership

To be considered for the Board, please submit your application and personal statement to Rocio Mendez by April 7, 2011:
